Honorable William J. Casey
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Bill:

As a result of our emphasis on the apprehension and prosecution of criminal offenders, the inmate population confined in federal prisons has significantly expanded during the past two years and now totals over 30,000. Most state prisons are experiencing a similar increase.

In view of the rapidly expanding population, the Federal Bureau of Prisons is seeking ways to increase work and training opportunities available to inmates. Our major focus is to expand the products and services produced for sale to other government agencies by inmates who work for Federal Prison Industries, Inc. As an example of the products inmates produce, I'm enclosing a copy of a recent catalog which I believe you will find of interest.

On May 25-26, 1983, we will hold a special display in the Great Hall of the Department of Justice of the items produced by inmates for sale to federal agencies. I hope that you and representatives of your agency who have responsibility for procurement will take time to view the display between the hours of 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. on those dates.

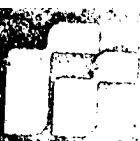

If you have any questions or desire additional information, you can contact Federal Prison Industries, Inc., on 724-3013.

Warm regards,

Sincerely,

William French Smith
Attorney General
